PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

REDUCED - Enchanting scenery and magnificent sunset views are the icing on the cake for this superbly located parcel of land on Antigua's famed west coast.

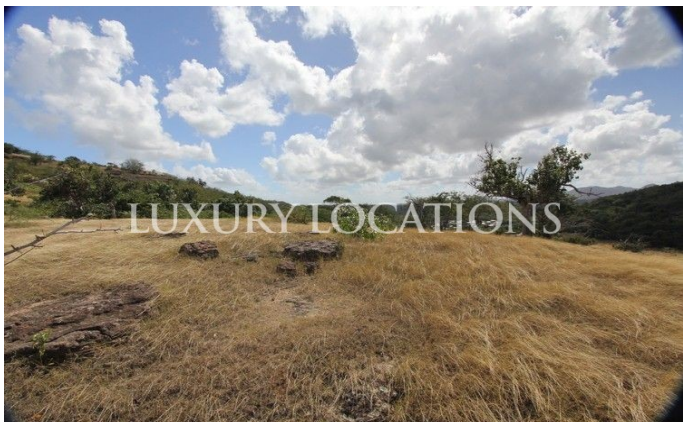

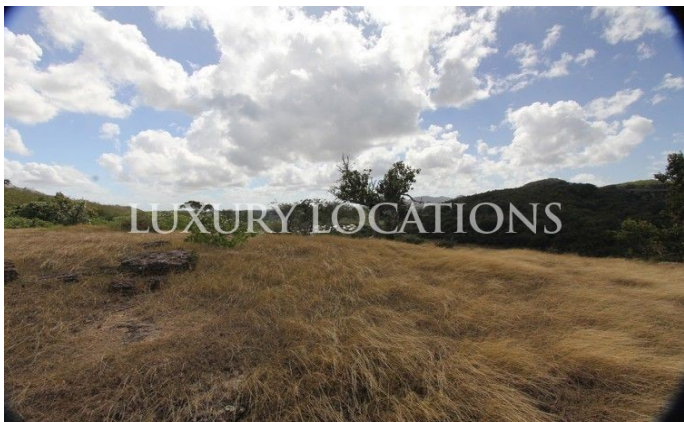

The elevated quarter-acre plot – overlooking the turquoise Caribbean Sea – is ideal for building a property for use as a holiday home or full-time residence.

The site boasts panoramic ocean vistas and is just a short walk to the acclaimed Galley Bay Resort with its sublime white sandy beach.

The area offers exceptional snorkelling and scuba diving for those who want to experience the island's intriguing marine life.

Galley Bay is ideally positioned for easy access to the capital, St John's, which is just a 10-minute drive away. It is also a short drive from the international airport and the popular bars and restaurants found in the north and west of the island.
